

I am one of the privileged few to use a captioned telephone (CapTel) I love it. My severe hearing loss caused me to have a terrible time understanding what was being said. With the Cap Tel I can read what the caller says as well as hear their voice.